NKU runs away with 2009 GLVC All-Sports Trophy

Norse claim award for sixth time with widest margin of victory in GLVC All-Sports Trophy history

INDIANAPOLIS – Northern Kentucky University has captured the 2008-09 Great Lakes Valley Conference All-Sports Trophy by the widest margin in history.

NKU, which claimed four conference titles in 2008-09, finished with 140.5 total points. NKU outdistanced runner-up Indianapolis by 24 points, the widest margin of victory in GLVC All-Sports Trophy history.

The GLVC All-Sports Trophy is based upon each institution's finish in each conference championship in which it participates. NKU also captured the award in 2000, '01, '02, '05 and '06.

Points are allocated based on overall finish in the league standings or finish in the respective sport's league championship tournament.

NKU won GLVC titles in men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. In addition, the Norse finished second in men's and women's soccer, men's golf and men's cross country.

The points received by the Norse athletic department, led by athletic director Jane Meier, is the second-highest point total recorded in league history. NKU's total fell just one point shy of the record of 141.50 points, which was established by former league-member Southern Jane Meier led NKU to the GLVC All-Sports Trophy for the sixth time.

Illinois-Edwardsville in 2006-07.

NKU also won the GLVC Commissioner's Cup for the fifth time in the past seven years with a total of 87 points, 26 more than runner-up Lewis. That award is given to the institution that totals the best finishes in the league's seven core sports (men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer and volleyball).

NKU also earned the GLVC Commissioner's Cup in '03, '05, '06 and '08.

NKU has captured the 2008-09 GLVC All-Sports Trophy. NKU won GLVC titles in men's and women's basketball, softball and baseball during the past year.
